It was a good market, with the EMI at its highest level since the third week of October. There were rises across all types and micron ranges and the market closed in an upward direction on Wednesday. Individual average AWEX Micron Price Guides (MPGs) moved up by 4% to 5%, except at 22 microns and 26 microns. The greatest gains were seen at the fine end. This was most apparent on Tuesday when the 16.5 and 17.0 MPGs moved up by 109¢ and 80¢ respectively.

The gains were achieved despite a further increase in the US Exchange Rate which finished 0.67¢ (0.9%) higher at 74.42¢ on Wednesday. This level has not been reached August 2018.

Buyers for China continued their dominance, while European interests also had a presence on the major buyers' list. The continuing dominance of buyers for China is best seen in the Export Data for October when 89% of Australia's exports for the month of October and 88% for the July to October period went to China.

Looking ahead, 49,126 bales are currently scheduled to be offered in the coming sale. This is 41.3% more than in the same week last year when the market was in a downward trend.

In other countries, South African sales are now in recess and will resume on 13 January.
