OOL MARKET REVIEW

Week Ending 25 June 2021 (Week 52)

The AWEX EMI finished 20¢ higher (+1.4%) in Australian currency and 3¢ higher (+0.3%) in US currency at sales in Sydney and Melbourne in Week 52.

33,330 bales were on offer nationally, compared with 42,496 bales last sale. 5.1% of the offering was passed in after 4.0% of the potential offering was withdrawn prior to sale, leaving 31,635 bales as sold.

AWEX reports that the value of the wool sold was $51.3 million ($1,622 per bale), taking the season total to $2.162 billion ($1,413 per bale). The number of bales sold at auction this season is now 26.5% greater than in 2019/20.

The market got away to another good start on Tuesday, when there were gains in the average AWEX Micron Price Guides over all Merino and Crossbred micron ranges and types. The gains were again led by the fine Merinos. Wednesday's market eased slightly, resulting in small falls, or no change, over most micron ranges other than at 16.5 microns which rose by 76¢ over the two days.

The average AWEX MPGs for 16.5 and 17.0 microns are now both over 1,000¢ above their values in Week 52 last year.

The US Exchange Rate continued downwards when it finished 0.87¢ (-1.1%) lower to close at 75.45¢ on Wednesday.

In the usual pattern, buyers for China were dominant, with support from buyers for Europe and India.

Looking ahead, next week's offering is forecast to be 44,400 bales. It will be held in Week 53 for which there was no comparative week last year. The offerings in Weeks 01 and 02 of next season are currently forecast to be 48,100 and 41,900, 36% more than in the first two weeks of the current season.

In other countries, sales in South Africa are in recess.
